

District Day on the Hill 2018

Student artwork from Kane County Schools was displayed at the Utah State Capitol at the annual District Day on the Hill. I would like to thank Barry Glazier for allowing the district to use his photograph for our backdrop. Thanks to Representative Noel for stopping by our display and supporting education. Thanks to Karen Kelly and Lisa Livingston for attending the legislative sessions and discussing educational bills with legislators and advocating for public education.

