

Classified Employees

At-will Status of Classified Employees—

“Classified employees” are all non-certified employees of the District. Consistent with the long-standing practice of Kane County School District, classified employees are employed at the will of the District, have no expectation of continuing employment, and their employment may be terminated at any time without cause. Classified employees are accordingly defined as “temporary employees” for purposes of Policy DHA.